

Workplace Password Malpractice Report 2021

Keeper Security surveyed 1,000 employees across the U.S. and found that employees' poor password practices are putting their organizations at risk.

Employees are using WEAK OR EASILY GUESSED PASSWORDS

31%

Use their child's name or birthday

34%

Use their significant other's name or birthday

37%

Use their employer's name

44%

Reuse passwords across personal & work-related accounts

ENTERPRISE PASSWORD SECURITY is as flimsy as a sticky note

Password written on sticky notes

57%

Passwords saved on employees' phones

55%

Passwords saved on their computer

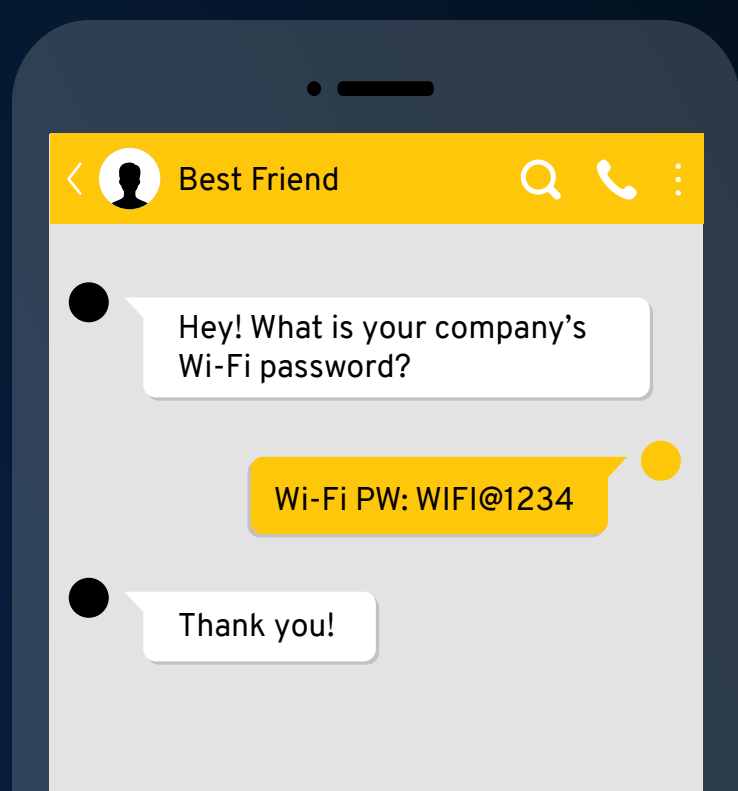

51%

Passwords saved in the cloud

49%

Employees are SHARING PASSWORDS INSECURELY and with unauthorized parties

62%

share work-related passwords over text message or email

EMPLOYERS have bad password habits too

46%

of companies let new employees use old credentials

Workplace password malpractice leaves companies

OPEN TO CYBERCRIME

Costly Data Breaches

Destructive Malware

Account Takeovers (ATOs)

Insider Threats

For more information and to download the Workplace Password Malpractice Report visit us here.